Respond to online incidents

The Emergency and Security Management Unit (ESMU) operates a twenty-four hour, seven days per week emergency and security communication and coordination centre. Step-by-step guides provide practical steps and actions to protect, respond to or manage an online incident of concern. See: Step by step guides

Teachers working online

As a Department employee and a professional educator, teachers are expected to model smart, appropriate use of digital technologies. See Staff social media policy:

Manage personal information

Schools are bound by the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic) (Victorian privacy laws).

Victorian privacy laws require schools to obtain fully informed, freely given, current and specific consent from the parent, guardian or carer of a student to use and disclose their personal information.

This also applies to the registration and use of online learning tools and services. Schools are also required to create, manage and dispose of their public records (i.e. student records) in accordance with the Public Records Act 1973 (Vic).

Services which operate online or within cloud technologies usually require certain personal details to create an account. Such services also usually provide an opportunity for personal information to be created within the space by the teacher and/or the student. Parents must give their consent knowing what information has been provided, who is able to see it and where it is stored. The intent of the space must also be understood.

The need for consent applies even when students sign themselves up for an account under teacher direction or supervision. It also applies if the personal information will not be accessible to or viewed by others, as stored data in a system.

Schools can undertake a privacy impact assessment (PIA) to identify and consider the privacy impacts of online services they would like to use.

Schools must also have parent consent before publishing, reproducing or communicating a student's work, information or image. Schools should understand that while consent can be freely given, it can also be withdrawn at any time. If consent is withdrawn, the school must remove the content/resource or access immediately. See: Consent forms

DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Digital copyright

Material on the internet is protected by copyright. The material that comprises a website will be protected by copyright and various pieces of content may be owned by different people.

In general, copyright in print, musical and artistic works, sound recordings or film contained on the internet will not be infringed, where the copy or communication is done with the permission of the copyright owner. Schools can ask permission or it could be indicated on a site or provided through Creative Commons licences under the fair dealing, flexible dealing, educational and other statutory exceptions, and copyright exceptions or through paid licence or agreement.

APPENDIX A: ACCEPTABLE USE AGREEMENT - STUDENTS SAFE AND RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOUR

At Richmond West Primary School, we support the rights of all members of the school community to be provided with and engage in a safe, inclusive and supportive learning environment. This extends to the use of digital tools and online communities and is underpinned by our expectation of safe and responsible behaviour of all members of the school community.

When I use digital technologies and the internet I communicate respectfully by:

- always thinking and checking that what I write, or post is polite and respectful
- being kind to my friends and classmates and thinking about how the things I do or say online might make them think or feel (Ask students to reflect on how they would feel.)
- working to stop bullying. I don't send mean or bullying messages or pass them on to others
- creating and presenting my own work and if I do copy something from the internet, letting others know by sharing the website link to acknowledge the creator.

When I use digital technologies and the internet, I protect personal information by being aware that my full name, photo, birthday, address and phone number is personal information and is not to be shared online. This means I:

- protect my friends' information in the same way
- protect my passwords and don't share them with anyone except my parents
- only ever join spaces with my parents or teacher's guidance and permission
- never answer questions online that ask for my personal information
- know not to post three or more pieces of identifiable information about myself.

When I use digital technologies and the internet, I respect myself and others by thinking about what I share online. This means I:

- stop to think about what I post or share online
- use spaces or sites that are appropriate for my age and if I am not sure I ask a trusted adult for help
- protect my friends' full names, birthdays, school names, addresses and phone numbers because this is their personal information
- speak to a trusted adult if I see something that makes me feel upset or if I need help
- speak to a trusted adult if someone is unkind to me or if I know someone else is upset or scared
- don't deliberately search for something rude or violent
- turn off or close the screen if I see something I don't like and tell a trusted adult
- am careful with the equipment I use.

At school we/I have:

DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

- discussed ways to be a safe and responsible user of digital technologies and the internet.
- presented my ideas around the ways that I can be a smart, safe and responsible user of digital technologies and the internet.

I will use this knowledge at school and everywhere I use digital technologies and the internet.
