Enrolment Documentation Checklist for Parents and Carers

Schools collect information as part of the enrolment process to support your child when they start school. To verify this information, schools may ask for supporting documentation.

This checklist details what documents parents and carers must provide when enrolling your child in a Victorian government school. These documents are generally requested after you receive an enrolment offer, except for proof of address and visa documents.

Your child is guaranteed a place at the local school they are zoned for. To find your local school, visit the Find my School website at www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au.

Families seeking enrolment at a specialist or selective entry school may need to provide other documents not in listed this checklist.

Frequently Asked Questions

What school can I enrol my child in?

Your child is guaranteed a place at their local school (the school they are zoned for). To find your local school, visit the Find my School website at www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au. You can also request enrolment at another government school, even if you do not live in the school zone. Your child should be offered enrolment if the school has available places.

Why do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools require supporting documents to verify your child's name, date of birth, address, residency status, care arrangements and medical or health-related needs. These documents help the school meet their legal responsibilities and ensure your child receives appropriate support when they start school. They also help the school to correctly respond to your child's needs in the event of a first aid incident or medical emergency.

How do I know what supporting documents I need to provide?

Read this checklist to see what documents are required. Not all documents are mandatory and may depend on your child's individual circumstances. If you have any questions, please contact your school for support.

When do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools request supporting documents after your child has been offered enrolment. This is generally when you are asked to complete a full enrolment form. The only exception is proof of address and temporary residency visa documents for international students, which schools may request earlier.

Do I need to provide all the suggested documents if my child is moving from a government school to a new government school?

No, if your child is enrolled in a government school and is moving to another government school, you do not need to provide all the suggested documents. Examples of required documents might include recent proof of address and updated health and medical records. The school will let you know what supporting documents you need to provide.

Can I submit digital copies of the required documents, or do they need to be physical copies?

Yes, you can provide copies of documents to the school either in-person or digitally. You do not need to provide documents in their original form.

What if a school requests a document not on the checklist?

You do not need to provide additional documents to enrol your child, e.g. NAPLAN results or school reports. However, sharing more information once your child has been offered enrolment can help the school better understand and support your child's learning needs.

Note: This does not apply to international students on temporary visas who must apply with the Department of Education International Education and may require further documentation.

What should I do if I can't provide a document or need more information?

It is important that you provide all required documentation, so your child receives appropriate support when starting school. If documents are missing or if information is incomplete, the school may delay your child's admission for up to 5 days. During this time, you will need to collect and submit the missing documents to the school. If you do not have all the documents needed for your child's enrolment, please contact the school for support. Schools are committed to ensuring enrolment practices do not unfairly disadvantage families facing difficult situations, such as those experiencing homelessness, family violence or recently arrived immigrants or refugees.

How long will the school keep my child's information?

The school will keep most of the information you provide for at least 7 years. This is so the school complies with public record keeping laws. The school will also need to keep a permanent summary of your child's information. This summary includes your child's name, date of birth, address and the name and contact details of any parent or carer of the student.

How is my information managed by a school?

The Department of Education and schools value your privacy and are committed to protecting information that schools collect. All information collected in the enrolment form and supporting documentation is managed as described in the schools' privacy policy (available here: www.vic.gov.au/schools-privacy-policy).

Starting primary school?

Immunisation information for parents enrolling a child into primary school in Victoria

Why immunise?

Children starting school are exposed to a large number of people and to a range of potentially dangerous diseases.

Immunisation is a proven and safe way to be protected against diseases that may cause serious illness and sometimes death.

Enrolling in primary school is a good time to check your child's immunisations are up to date.

What is an Immunisation History Statement?

It is a statement from the Australian Immunisation Register (AIR) that shows what vaccines your child has received.

By law, you must provide a current Immunisation History Statement from the AIR to the primary school when enrolling your child for the first time or when going to a new primary school.

If your child has not received any immunisations, you must still provide a current Immunisation History Statement, which states no vaccines have been given.

What is the statement used for?

To keep children safe. In the event of a vaccine preventable disease outbreak, unimmunised children can be quickly identified and may be required to be excluded from school until the risk of infection has passed. For further information refer to the 'school exclusion table' at:

<https://www2.health.vic.gov.au/public-health/infectiousdiseases/school-exclusion/school-exclusion-table>

If you do not provide an Immunisation History Statement to the school, your child may be excluded from school during a disease outbreak because their immunisation status will be unknown.

By law, all parents must provide a current Immunisation History Statement from the AIR to enrol their child in primary school.

How do I obtain an Immunisation History Statement?

The quickest way to get your child's statement is by using your Medicare online account through myGov or the Express Plus Medicare mobile app.

Alternatively, you can call the AIR on 1800 653 809 and request for your child's statement to be posted to you. It can take 14 days for your statement to arrive by post.

If you think your child's Immunisation History Statement is incomplete or incorrect, contact your immunisation provider.

What if my child has had immunisations overseas or they are not eligible for Medicare?

You can get overseas immunisations added to the AIR. You need to take a translated copy of your child's overseas immunisation history to your Australian immunisation provider. They will check the vaccines your child has had and tell you if any additional ones are required. They will update the AIR with immunisations given overseas as well as any new ones.

When your child's immunisations are recorded on the AIR, ask your vaccination provider if they can print an Immunisation History Statement from the AIR for you to give to your child's primary school.

Alternatively, you can call the AIR on 1800 653 809 to check if your child's immunisations have been recorded and request a statement to be posted to you. It can take up to 14 days to arrive by post.

A translating and interpreting service is available by calling 131 450, Monday to Friday from 8.30am to 4.45pm.

Dear parent/guardian,

Richmond West Primary School is looking forward to another great year of teaching and learning and would like to advise you of Richmond West Primary School's voluntary financial contributions for 2025.

Schools provide students with free instruction to fulfil the standard Victorian curriculum and we want to assure you that all contributions are voluntary. Nevertheless, the ongoing support of our families ensures that our school can offer the best possible education and support for our students. We want to thank you for all your support, whether that is through fundraising or volunteering your time. This has made a huge difference to our school and the programs we can offer.

Within our school this support has allowed us to provide a truly comprehensive and enriching program for our students – with a diverse range of educational activities and opportunities – over and above those associated with the basic curriculum.

For further information on the Department's Parent Payments Policy please see a one-page overview attached.

Yours sincerely,
